

May 6, 2015

China Eastern and Air France-KLM Launch Two-way Transfer in Pudong, Shanghai

China Eastern (CES) and Air France-KLM have launched two-way transfer service following the launch of one-way transfer cooperation.

Passengers taking CES flight and transferring to Air France or KLM's flight in Pudong, Shanghai, are enabled to get boarding passes of Air France or KLM's flight from Pudong to the destinations when checking in at the airport of departure with luggage checked to the destinations. After reaching Pudong, passengers only need to go through transfer procedures at the same floor for luggage claim. Before that, passengers shall first claim luggage in the arrival hall and go through procedures for the following flight in the departure hall.