China Eastern Named 2015 World's Most Popular Airlines

China Eastern (CES) ranked No.7 on the listing of 2015 World's Most Popular Airlines at the press conference of the 6th World Airlines Ranking and the presentation ceremony of the 5th World Air Stewardess Festival, which took place in Hong Kong. It took a strict selection process and an array of criteria including service quality, cabin environment, flight safety, operating performance and reputation to measure the world's most popular airlines.

CES' Lingyan crew participated in each session since the first ceremony. CES' cabin crew captured wide attention for their gracious profile, wholehearted service as well as professional practice.
